PADMA SHRI ACHARYA CHANDANAJI

PUJYA ACHARYA SHRI CHANDANAJI, the founder and an inspiration behind Veerayatan. Her every step is directed by boundless compassion, love and a resolute determination to alleviate the suffering of all those in need. Undeterred by obstacles and difficulties with fearlessness, Pujya Tai Ma has nurtured, grown and steered the achievements of Veerayatan for the past fifty years with just one aim in mind:

“Compassion in Action”

OUR INSPIRATION

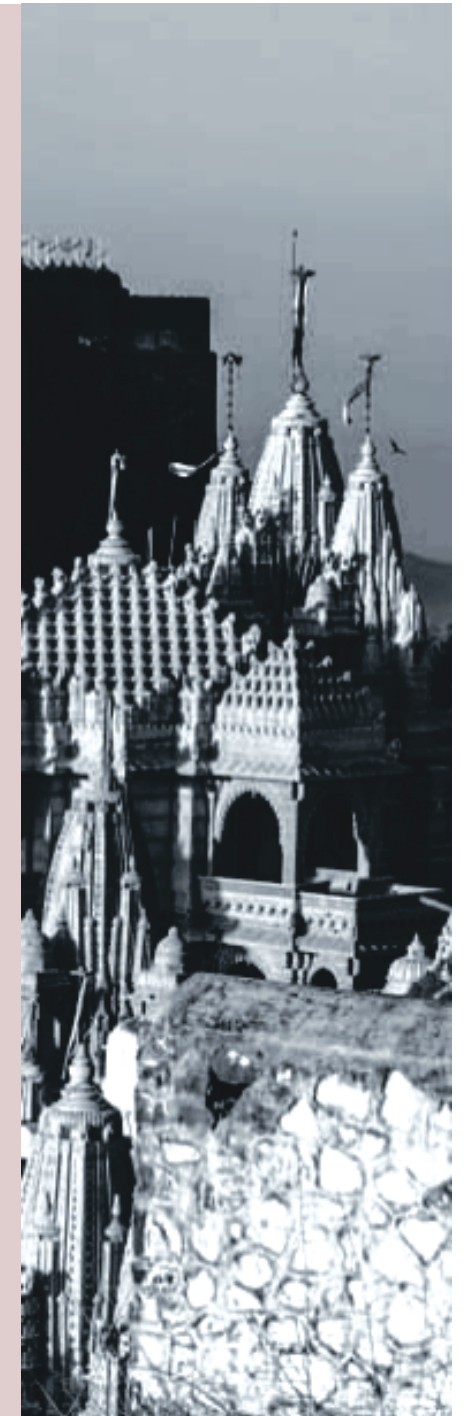

PALITANA

THE SHASHWAT TEERTH

Jain heritage recognises Palitana, the city of temples, as the most auspicious pilgrimage site for Jains and a timeless Tirth-Bhumi where millions of souls have attained enlightenment.

Shri Adinath Bhagwan, the first Tirthankar and the torch bearer of the Jain spiritual world and countless liberated souls have graced this land turning it into a celestial monument of faith, purity, peace and bliss.

To honour this pious land of Palitana, Pujya Tai Ma has established Veerayatan Palitana centre to focus on education, health and spiritual upliftment.

“JAHA JINALAY, VAHA VIDYALAYA”

- ACHARYA CHANDANAJI

The school, set in the periphery of Palitana, welcomes all with open arms. The clean crisp air, the well-developed greenery, the outdoor play area, and the neat and clean campus, the energy of the place is indescribable and marvels all. As one enters, there is a sense of equanimity evidenced by the warmth of the teachers, the smiles of the children and the peaceful ambience where children can learn with confidence and joy. The children seem set for life with an educational and spiritual start, enthused with hope, and immersed in a sense of purpose and belonging that Veerayatan has given to them.
